

2019 Tuition Fees:

- We have found that breaking down fees here makes for an easier transition throughout the year. This also ensures that all fees are paid in a timely manner.
- Deposits are non-refundable. Deposits become matriculation fee for the school term

Tuition:

Tuition payments can be made weekly, bi-monthly, or monthly. The most chosen option is a ten-month payment plan, with payments beginning in August and concluding in May. Promise Town is currently unable to accept credit/debit card payments. Checks, money orders, and cash payments are the current forms of acceptable payments. Please make checks or money orders payable to "Promise Town Ministry".

Tuition payments are due by close of business (6:00pm) Tuesday of each week. Once your child is enrolled, you are responsible for weekly tuition whether your child attends or not.

- Payment is due prior to services rendered.
- Tuitions fees are subject to review and subject to change (See brochure for current rates)
- Tuition fees include holidays and In-Service days; tuition is not reduced for holidays or in-service days.
- Tuition fees is not reduced for sick days
 - Accounts are reviewed in the case of absences exceeding two weeks due illness or surgery.
- Tuition is paid via payment drop-box located on the wall outside or front office and/or mailed to location. If mailed, payments must be received prior to due date.
